STRATEGIC THINKING

1. Learner®

What Is Learner?

People with strong Learner talents constantly strive to learn and improve. The process of learning is just as important to them as the knowledge they gain. The steady and deliberate journey from ignorance to competence energizes Learners. The thrill of learning new facts, beginning a new subject and mastering an important skill excites people with dominant Learner talents. Learning builds these people's confidence. Having Learner as a dominant theme does not necessarily motivate someone to become a subject-matter expert or strive for the respect that accompanies earning a professional or academic credential. The outcome of learning is less significant than the "getting there."

Why Your Learner Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

Intellection

By nature, you endorse the importance of acquiring additional knowledge and gaining new skills. You regard education as an ongoing activity.

Chances are good that you typically enroll in demanding classes. You thrive in situations where you can test your talents as well as your endurance to discover how much you can accomplish. You need to prove yourself to yourself each day.

Because of your strengths, you latch onto opportunities to acquire knowledge. You carefully and methodically think through ideas you have garnered from reading, classes, seminars, or conversations. You probably have little patience with individuals whose emotions cloud their judgment. You are likely to distance yourself from people who refuse to expand their minds.

Instinctively, you enjoy pondering what you can revise, correct, renovate, upgrade, or relocate. When you are curious about a person, event, topic, project, activity, or idea, you devote much energy and time to studying it.

It's very likely that you take pains to uncover how and why things happen as they do. You share your discoveries with partners, teammates, and friends. You typically streamline your explanations. You cover only the essential facts. Most individuals can easily grasp what you say. Listeners probably appreciate you giving them less detail so they can understand the main points.

How Learner Blends With Your Other Top Five Strengths

LEARNER + ANALYTICAL

Education is something you enjoy personally, but its ultimate value is something you must measure objectively.

LEARNER + DELIBERATIVE

You are open to new information and experiences, but you want adequate time to study them carefully and thoroughly.

LEARNER + RELATOR

Your deepest, longest friendships don't stagnate because you strive to discover something new about those who are familiar.

LEARNER + INTELLECTION

You are a student of the world in which you live, and you are student of the world of thoughts that lives within you.

Apply Your Learner to Succeed

Develop expertise in areas that interest you the most.

- ☐ Regularly study new topics and skills. Challenge yourself to learn about complex ideas, programs or experiences others might not want to explore.
- ☐ Refine how you develop your expertise. For example, you might learn best by beginning a new project; if so, find new tasks or projects to start. Or you might learn best by teaching; if so, find ways to present to others.

STRATEGIC THINKING

2. Analytical®

What Is Analytical?

People with strong Analytical talents challenge others to prove it. They take a critical approach to what others might quickly accept as truth. They search for the reasons why things are the way they are. They want to understand how certain patterns affect one another: how they combine, the outcome and if the result fits with the theory or the situation. Others see them as logical and rigorous. Some might feel that they are negative or unnecessarily critical when they are simply trying to understand something. They bring an objective and dispassionate examination to things enabling them to find the causes and effects, and then developing clear thoughts based on facts.

Why Your Analytical Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

It's very likely that you quickly spot trends, emerging patterns, or warning signs in numerical data. You are delighted each time you pinpoint emerging opportunities or disasters that others fail to see. Your insights allow you to complete, upgrade, or perfect projects, ideas, or productivity.

Because of your strengths, you reflect on what others say. You carefully consider the information. Then you often draw conclusions. You have a sobering effect on discussions. This intensifies your own and other people's capacity to hear the words spoken and understand their frame of reference.

Instinctively, you typically design repetitious patterns for handling the mundane, yet necessary, parts of your life. You probably have methodical ways for paying bills, shopping for groceries, making appointments, preparing for meetings, exercising, or moving through your day.

By nature, you truly enjoy instructing people. You prefer to invest your time in trainees or students who genuinely appreciate your carefully reasoned approach to a particular topic.

Driven by your talents, you normally rely on logic and reason when you must make important judgments. Your thoughtful approach is most apparent when you must consider the short-term and long-term effects of your choices on yourself and others.

How Analytical Blends With Your Other Top Five Strengths

ANALYTICAL + LEARNER

Education is something you enjoy personally, but its ultimate value is something you must measure objectively.

ANALYTICAL + DELIBERATIVE

You are serious-minded. You rely on quantification to validate existing theories and on calculation to minimize existing risks.

ANALYTICAL + RELATOR

You often bring facts and logic to your close relationships. You believe that intimacy and objectivity can coexist.

ANALYTICAL + INTELLECTION

You seek understanding through deep and theoretical inquiry, and you validate truth through objective measurement.

Apply Your Analytical to Succeed

Find ways to express and put your thoughts into action.

- ☐ Find credible data and facts to help support your thinking. Use these sources of information to reinforce your thought process when talking with others.
- ☐ Provide simple, logical and objective advice to the people that matter most to you. Your ability to uncover the essential facts can transform complex situations into understandable actions.

EXECUTING

3. Deliberative®

What Is Deliberative?

People with strong Deliberative talents are careful and vigilant. Everything may seem in order, but beneath the surface, they sense many risks. Rather than avoiding these hazards, they draw them out into the open so they can identify, assess and ultimately reduce each risk. Thus, those with strong Deliberative talents bring a thorough and conscientious approach to making decisions. They take care to consider options, thinking through the pros and cons of each alternative. To them, making the correct choice is more important than the time it takes to do so. They see life as something of a minefield. Others may run through it recklessly if they so choose, but those with Deliberative talents take a different approach. They identify the dangers, weigh these risks' relative effect and then place their feet deliberately. They walk with care.

Why Your Deliberative Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

Because of your strengths, you sometimes withhold recognition until you have sufficient proof the recipient has earned it. Perhaps people appreciate your compliments because you give so few of them.

Driven by your talents, you are intentional and purposeful about what you do. "Rash" and "impulsive" are not adjectives most people would use to describe you. Typically you think through things thoroughly before speaking or acting. By nature, you tend to be businesslike in your approach to personal and professional issues.

By nature, you typically approach your job or your studies with a no-nonsense, businesslike attitude. This explains why so many people think you have a very strong work ethic.

It's very likely that you are willing to sacrifice affection and relationships to be true to yourself. In your opinion, life is not a popularity contest.

Instinctively, you tend to be earnest, businesslike, and dignified in what you say and do. Understandably, the books and publications you read are apt to reflect your no-nonsense approach to life. You aim to accumulate knowledge whenever you peruse — that is, studiously examine — the printed word.

DELIBERATIVE + RELATOR

Trusting others takes some time for you because you trust only those you know well, and you are careful about who you get to know.

DELIBERATIVE + INTELLECTION

Your introspective reflection enhances your self-awareness. Your vigilant anticipation enhances your risk awareness.

Apply Your Deliberative to Succeed

Take time to assess each situation — then act.

- ☐ Set aside time each day for yourself. Your thoughtful approach when considering options gives you the foresight to make wise decisions
- ☐ Think through the advantages and disadvantages when making important choices. To you, making the correct choice is more important than the time it takes to analyze the alternatives.

RELATIONSHIP BUILDING

4. Relator®

What Is Relator?

Relator talents describe a person's attitude toward their relationships. People with strong Relator talents are drawn to others they already know. They do not necessarily shy away from meeting new people — in fact, they may have other themes that cause them to enjoy the thrill of turning strangers into friends — but they do derive a great deal of pleasure and strength from being around their close friends. A person with strong Relator talents forms close relationships with people.

Why Your Relator Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

LearnerAnalytical*Deliberative*Relator*Intellection

By nature, you have close companions who frequently seek your guidance. You help them find answers to their personal and professional problems. This makes you a valuable friend.

Chances are good that you may be regarded by some individuals as a fine trainer, tutor, or instructor. Occasionally you describe yourself in these terms.

Driven by your talents, you may appreciate certain historically minded people. Perhaps you befriend those who ask for your views on past events or specific luminaries — that is, prominent individuals.

It's very likely that you are a well-read individual. People whom you have befriended turn to you for guidance. Often you help them see a situation or problem from a different perspective because of something you discovered while surveying a book, article, letter, or Internet site. For you, reading is the key that opens the door to a world of fresh ideas. You collect them, never knowing when something you read will benefit someone else.

Because of your strengths, you thrive in settings where you can accomplish things. Of course, you have your own step-by-step way of performing repetitious tasks. As long as you can stick to your preferred plan of action, you usually enjoy handling the details and deadlines related to jobs, chores, projects, hobbies, assignments, or errands.

RELATOR + DELIBERATIVE

Trusting others takes some time for you because you trust only those you know well, and you are careful about who you get to know.

RELATOR + INTELLECTION

Even though you find solitude conducive for clarifying your thoughts, it will never take the place of being with your friends.

Apply Your Relator to Succeed

Make time for one-on-one interactions with your friends.

- ☐ Make sure you get enough one-on-one time with the important people in your life. Periodic opportunities to interact with them will energize you.
- ☐ Take time to tell others how your relationship with them creates happiness in your life. Ask them how it enhances their happiness. Doing this with each person will show you care about them.

STRATEGIC THINKING

5. Intellection®

What Is Intellection?

People with strong Intellection talents like to think. They like mental activity. They like to exercise the “muscles” of their brain, stretching them in multiple directions. This need for mental activity may be focused; for example, they may be trying to solve a problem, develop an idea or understand another person’s feelings. The exact focus will depend on their other strengths. The theme of Intellection does not dictate what these people are thinking about; it simply describes that they like to think. They like to let their thoughts go in many directions. People with strong Intellection talents are introspective. This introspection gives them time to reflect and ponder. Wherever it leads them, their mental hum is a constant in their lives.

Why Your Intellection Is Unique

These Strengths Insights are personalized based on your CliftonStrengths results.

LearnerAnalytical*Deliberative*Relator*Intellection

By nature, you are quite comfortable having time to yourself to enjoy a favorite pastime: reading. Whether you are sitting on a quiet beach or in a crowded airport terminal, you create your own space with a book, magazine, newspaper, document, or correspondence. Gleaning information, inspiration, or insights from these sources can make your relaxation more pleasurable or your delays more tolerable.

Because of your strengths, you prepare for important conversations or discussions by collecting lots of background information. It is not unusual for you to set aside at least five hours of quiet time each week to consider what you have discovered. You are likely to use this time to expand your thinking. A new piece of material can send you hunting for additional evidence to support your theories, concepts, or proposals.

Chances are good that you are willing to spend time sharing your ideas with intelligent individuals. Of course, you want them to tell you their latest thinking. Conversations that involve a lot of questions and answers stimulate your mind. You know you have spent your time wisely when you have a number of new ideas, theories, or concepts to somehow file away or remember for future use.

It’s very likely that you read to stimulate your mind, to broaden your perspective, and to explore familiar as well as unfamiliar subjects. Reading is a solitary activity, which is one of the reasons why you like it so much. You are quite comfortable being alone with your books and your thoughts.

Instinctively, you delight in the opportunity to hear leading thinkers discuss their theories and insights. The “life of the mind” appeals to you greatly. You relish acquiring new information about profound, out-of-the-ordinary, or scholarly ideas.

Apply Your Intellection to Succeed

Make time to think by yourself and with others.

- ☐ Set aside a few minutes every day just to think. Doing this refines your ideas and sharpens your thinking.
- ☐ Identify topics that fascinate you and find a like-minded person to explore them with. Spend time delving into these topics with this person to stimulate your thinking even further.
